

North Dakota Soccer Hall of Fame Class of 2013

Jack Crary

Dr. Jack Crary, serving the community of Fargo/Moorhead, played a vital role in the growth of soccer in the state of North Dakota. Crary was a long time coach in the Red River Soccer Club and enjoyed coaching both boys and girls. He was instrumental in starting the South Side Soccer Club in Fargo. Crary also served on the state level as an officer for the North Dakota Youth Soccer Association. His biggest impact was on the High School level as coach of the Fargo South Boys Soccer team. Leading them to 11 Eastern Conference championships and 10 North Dakota State titles. He won several awards for his coaching on both the state and regional level.
